Notes

- Exact prices will be quoted together with the estimate for interpretation services.
- The audience's headsets are DC operated and completely mobile.
- Radio transmitters are usually used for outdoor events, infrared transmitters for indoor events.
- The interpreter's station includes a front isolation unit and a tabletop unit with headphone and microphone, headphone and microphone amplifiers, and console (audio control center).
- Instead, a walk-in booth may be rented. Charges start at $ 250.00. If a walk-in booth is rented, delivery, set-up, break-down and pick-up charges accrue for 3-4 additional hours.
- Shipping fees may accrue if no equipment rental company is available in the area.
- Delivery, set-up, break-down and pick-up services are usually available on business days (Monday through Friday) only.
- WordExpress strongly recommends hiring an on-site technician to ensure proper functioning of the equipment during the course of the interpretation. Please note that the above-listed technician rates apply to business days only. Additional charges will accrue for Saturdays, Sundays or holidays.
- Usually, the client's security deposit amounts to the security deposit required by the equipment rental company.
